

John Allwright Fellowship

Referee Report

For Referees: The applicant has named you as a referee in support of their John Allwright Fellowship (JAF) application. JAF is an initiative of the Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research (ACIAR) and administered by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Australia Awards system for study in Australia.

To assist in the selection process, complete the provided report by sharing your views on the applicant’s suitability for a scholarship. Specifically focus on their capabilities and personal qualities, academic competence and potential outcomes.

For Applicants: Once your project leader has completed the referee report, you must upload this report under the Documentary Evidence in your OASIS file.

Note - Separate referee reports are required from both the Australian* and Collaborating Country project leaders.

*Australian project leader referee report is not required if the commissioned organisation is outside of Australia.
